

MetroWest CFCU Gives Back

MetroWest exceeds donation goal by over $3,000

Framingham, MA – On January 1, 2019, MetroWest Community Federal Credit Union kicked off the new year with a goal to make $6,000 worth of donations to multiple organizations within the Framingham, Ashland, and Natick communities. As of December 16, 2019, MetroWest has exceeded that goal by 150% with total donations topping over $9,000. Organizations such as the Boys & Girls Club of MetroWest, Framingham High School Foundation, Camp Arrowhead American Veterans Association, Daniel's Table, and many more were the recipients of this year's contributions.

"Everyone has a role to play in the community," said Joseph Mansour, CEO of MetroWest Community Federal Credit Union. "The donations we made this year were just one way we played our role."

One of the main goals for MetroWest Community Federal Credit Union was to improve the overall quality of life of its members. Providing innovative products and services, along with a strong focus on supporting and aiding the community in which their members live, are ways they attain their goal.

Forming long-lasting partnerships is at the core of MetroWest's outreach. "We try to make strong, community connections," said David Blais, Founder of Daniel's Table. "[MetroWest] reached out and said, 'We'd like to walk beside you.'"

MetroWest Community Federal Credit Union aided the New England Adjustment Managers Association and the United States Marine Corps gather donations for their Toys for Tots campaign this holiday season.
